Q. Who initiated the mentoring relationship?

A. I initiated the mentorship relationship because I wanted to point the youth towards God.

Q. When and where do you meet?

A. we usually meet every Sunday after service. The meeting takes place in the church gardens where the environment is conducive free sharing.

Q. How is the time spent?

A. We usually share information about the presence of God amongst us and how we can invest our lives and time in doing his will.

Q. Most difficult aspect of the relationship

A. The initial stages of the relationship are the most difficult because it is difficult to choosing mentees. In the church we have mentorship programs and it becomes difficult to match up the young adults to their mentoring groups. I rely on prayer and wisdom to do so.

Q. Most significant result of the relationship

A. Troubled youth are able to find peace within them and lead a productive life in line with the teachings of the bible. The mentees also become mentors to other youth.

Q. Who initiated the mentoring relationship?

A. The mentees initiated the relationship. They wanted to have a better cooperative relationship with God.

Q. When and where do you meet?

A. Our meetings take place in the evenings at the local youth center.

Q. How is the time spent?

A. The sessions usually start with me asking a series of questions that give me a rough idea into the mentees personality and God concept. Then we form a pact, share personal histories. I further ask the mentee to do a personal stock on his relationship with God.

Q. Most difficult aspect of the relationship

A. Sometimes I am reluctant to mentor people because at time, I do not have a good idea on how mentoring relationship works.

Q. Most significant result of the relationship

A. Growth of the mentees godly character in their lives. Mentoring also helps me keep close to Jesus by following his example of being a mentor.
